01. Introduction

FRANCHISE ACT 1998 Overview

In force since 8 October 1999

Provides for the registration and regulation of the franchise industry in Malaysia

Enacted to facilitate an orderly and systematic development and healthy growth of the franchise industry in Malaysia

Not only requires the registration of all businesses to be franchised, but also details the obligations of franchisors and franchisees

Amendments to the Franchise Act 1998 was introduced in 2011 and 2018 which culminated to the Franchise (Amendment) Act 2012 and The Franchise (Amendment) Act 2020 respectively that brought more changes and strengthen regulation making it quasi criminal

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Application

3(1) This Act applies throughout Malaysia to the sale and operation of any franchise in Malaysia.

3(2) The sale and operation of a franchise is deemed to be in Malaysia where—

(a) an offer to sell or buy a franchise—

(i) is made in Malaysia and accepted within or outside Malaysia; or

(ii) is made outside Malaysia and accepted within or outside Malaysia; and

b) the franchised business is operated or will be operating in Malaysia.

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Application (Cont.)

3(3) Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of any other written laws, but if there is any conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of the other written laws, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Interpretation (only important part)

4 In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“advertisement” means any publication, circular, notice, or any oral or written communication, whether broadcasted by electronic or any other publishing media, or any form of electronic communications to the public for the purpose of offering the sale of a franchise or promoting the sale of a franchise;

“disclosure documents” means such disclosure documents as may be prescribed by the Minister;

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Interpretation (only important part)

“franchise” means a contract or an agreement, either expressed or implied, whether oral or written, between two or more persons by which—

(a) the franchisor grants to the franchisee the right to operate a business according to the franchise system as determined by the franchisor during a term to be determined by the franchisor;

(b) the franchisor grants to the franchisee the right to use a mark, or a trade secret, or any confidential information or intellectual property, owned by the franchisor or relating to the franchisor, and includes a situation where the franchisor, who is the registered user of, or is licensed by another person to use, any intellectual property, grants such right that he possesses to permit the franchisee to use the intellectual property;

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Interpretation (only important part)

(c) the franchisor possesses the right to administer continuous control during the franchise term over the franchisee’s business operations in accordance with the franchise system; and

(d) (Deleted by Act A1442).

(e) in return for the grant of rights, the franchisee may be required to pay a fee or other form of consideration.

(f) (Deleted by Act A1442).

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Interpretation (only important part)

“franchise agreement” means a contract or an agreement made between a franchisor and a franchisee in respect of a franchise in return for any form of consideration but does not include any contract or agreement made for the purpose of direct selling as provided by the Direct Sales Act 1993 [Act 500];

“franchisee” means a person to whom a franchise is granted and includes, unless stated otherwise in this Act—

(a) a master franchisee with regard to his relationship with a franchisor; and

(b) a subfranchisee with regard to his relationship with a master franchisee;

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Interpretation (only important part)

“franchisor” means a person who grants a franchise to a franchisee and includes a master franchisee with regard to his relationship with a subfranchisee, unless stated otherwise in this Act;

“mark” includes a trade mark, service mark, symbol, design, brand, heading, label, ticket, name, signature, word and letter or any combination of them;

“master franchisee” means a person who has been granted rights by a franchisor to subfranchise to another person, at his own expense, the franchise of the franchisor;

“person” includes a natural person, corporation, partnership, association, firm, joint venture or trust;

02. Franchise Act 1998 - Interpretation & Application

Interpretation (only important part)

“‘Subfranchise’ means ‘a franchise granted by a master franchisee to a subfranchisee for business purposes under the Act’; and ‘Subfranchisee’ means ‘a subfranchise holder’.”
